Commercial and Business Litigation

Dixon J. Cheung is an Associate Attorney Dallas office of Godwin Bowman PC. Mr. Cheung's primary focus is on commercial and business litigation matters in a broad range of complex legal issues. His practice includes defending national corporations and premises owners in complex product liability, toxic tort, environmental litigation, family law and landlord-tenant law.

Dixon was a part of the Mission Critical Litigation team that secured a defense victory in a non-competition/non-solicitation agreement case brought against their clients by an international multi-billion dollar building conglomerate, which was seeking more than $40 million in compensatory damages, in addition to punitive damages and attorney's fees. The two-week jury trial was presided over by the Honorable Judge Maricela Moore in the 162nd Judicial District Court and was one of the first complex commercial litigation jury trials to commence in-person in Dallas County since the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic, which began in March 2020.

Dixon received his J.D. from the University of Houston Law Center and Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Baylor University where he was the recipient of the Provost's Gold Scholarship. While at the University of Houston Law Center, he was Vice Chair, Alternative Dispute Resolution Team, and Executive Board ABA Section of Dispute Resolution Representation in Mediation Competition, Representative William & Mary Law School Negotiation Tournament, Representative Student Bar Association, Member.

Dixon is fluent in Mandarin Chinese (speaking), Intermediate Spanish (reading, writing, and speaking).
